FLIGHTWORKS ADDS MORE JETS TO FLEET

FlightWorks now manages over 30 aircraft in key markets.

Atlanta (February 13, 2006) FlightWorks added three aircraft to its charter fleet in January 2006. FlightWorks manages a growing and diverse fleet of aircraft in key markets throughout the country to meet the increasing demand for retail charter. The three business jets are based in the Southeast.

A 560 Citation Excel is based at McCollum Field in the Atlanta, Georgia metro area. This aircraft, featuring seating for up to 8 passengers, is equipped with such amenities as a mini galley, soft leather captain's chairs, five video monitors, a DVD/CD stereo, satellite phone, and a private lavatory with sink and vanity. The executive interior includes mid-cabin club seating, two forward facing club chairs and a two-person divan, all upholstered in luxurious taupe leather. The interior appointments include plush beige carpeting, high gloss Montana Walnut woodwork on the tables, galley and trim. The Citation Excel is outfitted with Pratt & Whitney engines, Honeywell avionics and advanced safety equipment.

A Beechjet 400A, also based at McCollum Field in the Atlanta, Georgia area, provides spacious and quiet seating for up to 7 passengers. With a high gloss white body, bold navy striping and gold sweeping accents, this sleek and stylish jet features a comfortable interior as well as generous exterior storage capacity. The jet is equipped with navy leather captain chairs and an enclosed aft lavatory. The jet offers ultra-quiet service in a comfortable, relaxing and efficient cabin.

An economical charter favorite, the Westwind II, based at McCollum Field, features comfortable seating for up to 8 passengers, convenient writing desks, coffee service, and a fully enclosed aft lavatory. The Westwind II, with its excellent combination of range and speed can fly passengers nationwide from its southeast base.

FlightWorks earned NetJet's "Charter Vendor of The Year" award in 2005. The award is evidence of the company's continued focus on customer service, safety and reliability even as it experiences remarkable growth. FlightWorks also achieved ISO 9001:2000 certification, further demonstrating its commitment to service, quality and continuous business process improvement.
