FLIGHTWORKS NETS SAFETY AWARD FROM NATIONAL BUSINESS AVIATION ASSOCIATION
Nationally Ranked Fourth in Number of Safe Accident-free Flight Hours

KENNESAW, GA – December 4, 2007. FlightWorks, one of the nation's leading general aviation companies, was recognized by the National Business Aviation Association (NBAA) for its superb safety record. NBAA presents Flight Safety Awards to its member companies whose aircraft have flown three or more consecutive accident-free years in a nonscheduled, revenue-producing capacity. FlightWorks ranked fourth in the NBAA awards for the number of total accident-free hours -- 38,992 hours over seven years. FlightWorks is the largest Part 135 operator to make the list this year, with a fleet of 28 charter aircraft.

"Safety is our highest priority and we focus not only on meeting, but surpassing, baseline requirements for aircraft maintenance and pilot training," said Scott Beale, CEO of FlightWorks. "While we provide competitive and cost-effective aircraft management and charter services, we never cut corners when it comes to the safety of our customers."

FlightWorks operates private executive facilities and business jets in major markets across the United States where it offers executive charter, aircraft management and aviation consulting to corporate executives, business owners, high-net-worth individuals and government agencies. The company specializes in on-demand charter with flexible scheduling, uncompromised safety and personalized customer service.

FlightWorks is listed in Inc. 5000's "Fastest Growing Private Companies in America," ranking 23 in the Top Companies in Transportation. FlightWorks highly prioritizes safety, and its efforts have earned the company ARG/US Platinum and Wyvern-recommended status, and it is an ISO 9001:2000 Certified company.

The headquarters office is located at 500 TownPark Lane, Suite 350, Kennesaw, GA. with private executive terminals in Atlanta, GA, Washington, DC, and Jacksonville, FL, metropolitan areas, as well as additional charter operations throughout the Southeast, Mid-Atlantic and Central United States.
