FlightWorks Wyvern Recommended Status

Atlanta, GA – March 1, 2008 -- FlightWorks, Inc. has once again received a recommendation from Wyvern Consulting, Ltd. which recognizes excellence and dedication to safety and operations. FlightWorks was awarded the initial recommendation in 2004, the highest level of recognition, after undergoing a comprehensive on-site audit from Wyvern's independent auditors. A full-scale annual audit is required to maintain this high level recognition.

"FlightWorks is dedicated to being the leader in business aviation by providing unsurpassed service while still upholding the highest safety standards possible," said Scott Beale, CEO. "I am proud that our company continues to earn Wyvern recommended status year after year, and I would like to recognize the safety commitment shared by each of the outstanding men and women who work at FlightWorks. They are truly committed to ensuring our passengers' ongoing safety is never compromised."

Wyvern Consulting sets the standards for aviation safety and is the world's largest provider of Independent Aviation Safety Evaluations. Corporate travel departments and individuals worldwide recognize Wyvern Certification as an integral part of ensuring the safest travel possible. The Wyvern audit is extremely comprehensive and includes an evaluation of such areas as: management and administration, flight operations and maintenance.

"Every aspect of our business that impacts our customers is evaluated," said Scott. "It is very rewarding to be recognized for something that is so ingrained in our operating philosophy. This is just one additional way we demonstrate that our customers are our top priority."
